The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 2.

Yeſterday the General Aſſembly of this Colony met at the CAPITOL in this City, when His Honour the Governor opened the Seſſion with the following SPEECH.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

IT is with great Pleaſure I meet you again in a Legiſlative Capacity, and as the laſt Seſſion ended with great Harmony, I doubt not this preſent Seſſion will begin, continue, and end, in the ſame Manner; and I hope you meet with Unanimity, for the Service of your Country.

Your Addreſs to His Majeſty was tranſmitted and properly preſented. I ſhall lay before you a Copy of ſundry Paragraphs of Mr. Abercrombie, your Agent's Letters to me, in Regard thereto, and to the Acts paſſed laſt Seſſions: And I ſhall alſo lay before you, a Letter from the Right Honourable the Lords of Trade, recommending a ſtrict Friendſhip and Affection to the Indians, and ſhewing the Uſefulneſs of giving a proper Encouragement to foreign Proteſtants to ſettle in the interior Parts of this Dominion; a Copy of the Lords of Trade, their Remonſtrance and Reaſons to His Majeſty, on your reviſed Laws; a Report of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to the Lords of the Treaſury, in Regard to your Tobacco Law; as alſo a Copy of an Inſtruction from his Majeſty, granting me Power to give my Aſſent to two Laws formerly repealed; to all which I refer you.

I am heartily ſorry for the bad Accounts we have of the Price of Tobacco at Home, and of its bad Quality; which I conceive muſt be greatly owing to the Neglect and Diſhoneſty of the Inſpectors; I therefore recommend to your Conſideration, whether the Reduction of the vaſt Number of Warehouſes, and the appointing an Inſpector-General in each River, properly impowered to inſpect the different Warehouſes, and to examine the Books of the Inſpectors, would not be of Service to remove the Complaints now ſubſiſting.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

Since your laſt Adjournment, I have been alarmed by ſeveral Informations from our back Settlements, from the Indians, and from our neighbouring Governors, of a large Body of French Regulars, and Indians in their Intereſt, having marched from Canada to the Ohio, in a hoſtile Manner, to invade His Majeſty's Territories, and having actually built a Fort on his Majeſty's Land: On which, by the Advice of the Council, I have ſent ſeveral conſiderable Preſents to the Indians, that are our Allies, and in Friendſhip with us. Theſe People ſeem much ſurprized at the Conduct of the French, and appear full of Reſentment; and have aſſured the Commiſſioners, ſent from me, of their ſincere Attachment to the Britiſh Intereſt, and to the Engliſh Colonies on this Continent.

As I intend to meet the Chiefs of the different Tribes of Indians, next May, at Wincheſter, to deliver a very conſiderable Preſent from His Majeſty; I am in great Hopes then, to make a firm, ſtrong, and laſting Alliance with them.

This Attempt of the French has been repreſented to the Miniſtry at Home, by ſeveral of the Governors on this Continent, and by myſelf; and by them it was laid before the King. His Majeſty out of His paternal Love, Affection, and great Regard He bears to His Subjects on this Continent, immediately ordered one of His Ships of War to come to this Dominion, with His Royal Inſtructions to me, how to conduct myſelf in the preſent Situation of Affairs: I alſo received Letters to all His Majeſty's Governors on this Continent, with Orders to diſpatch the ſame to them immediately.

As this Affair has been ſo ſtrongly noticed and attended to at Home, and there judged to be of great Conſequence to His Majeſty's Dominions, and to His Subjects here, I doubt not, you will think it a Matter that requires your immediate Conſideration.

And I am commanded by His Majeſty, immediately to call the Aſſembly within my Government, and to lay before them the Neceſſity of a mutual Aſſiſtance, and to engage them to grant ſuch Supplies, as the Exigency of the preſent Affairs require: Which I now do, and I doubt not but you will anſwer His Royal Expectations, by granting ſuch Sums of Money, for the defeating the Deſigns of our Enemies, as the preſent Emergency calls for.

And as His Majeſty's Ship is directed to wait for my Diſpatches, I ſhall detain her till you come to ſome Reſolution thereon. His Majeſty has, out of His great Goodneſs and Regard to our Preſervation, ordered Thirty Pieces of Cannon, Powder, &c. for the Protection of our Frontiers to the Weſtward, and I very ſoon expect them; when they do arrive, I ſhall adviſe with the Council, how they ſhall be diſpoſed of for the Uſe intended.

Gentlemen,

I think, from the remarkable Tokens of His Majeſty's paternal Care, and particular Regard for our Safety and Protection, I need uſe no other Arguments to you, to take into your Conſideration the Neceſſity of a preſent and immediate Supply; not doubting but you will enable me to comply with His Majeſty's Orders, and to return an agreeable Anſwer on the Subject, and that you will act therein conſiſtently with the juſt and diſtinguiſhed Character the Legiſlature of Virginia bears with the King and His Miniſtry at Home.

And as the Supply now demanded is for the Protection of our Lives and Properties, the Extenſion and Settlement of His Majeſty's Territories, and for the Benefit and Advantage of us and our Poſterity, I ſhall leave this Affair entirely to your mature Conſideration.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

My Attention, ever ſince I had the Honour of preſiding over this Dominion, has been to have the Militia properly trained up in the Uſe of their Arms, and to have them made more perfect and regular in the Exerciſe thereof: For that Purpoſe I have, with the Advice of the Council, divided this Dominion into Four Diſtricts; and have appointed an Adjutant to each Diſtrict, with my Orders to exerciſe the Officers firſt, to qualify them to exerciſe each ſeparate Company, ſo as to be properly prepared for General Muſters in September: As I am of Opinion, That the Militia Law is deficient in ſome Points, I ſhall lay before you ſome Remarks thereon for your Conſideration. As our Militia, under GOD, is our chief Dependance, for the Protection of our Lives and Fortunes (our Country being very extenſive, and without Fortifications) I doubt not you will think it a proper Step to look into that Law, and make ſuch Alteration and Amendment as to you may be thought neceſſary.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Houſe of Burgeſſes,

The Affairs before mentioned, being all I have at preſent to lay before you, and as they are of great Conſequence to the Colony, I deſire you will enter on your Duty, with Calmneſs and due Conſideration, in the Diſcharge of the Truſt repoſed in you by your Conſtituents. And now I deſire to aſſure you, That I am ready to aſſiſt you, in doing every Thing in my Power, for the Service of His Majeſty, and of this Dominion.

November 3. 1753.

To the Honourable ROBERT DINWIDDIE, Eſq; His Majeſty's Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, of the Colony and Dominion of VIRGINIA,

The humble ADDRESS of the Council.

SIR,

WE His Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Council of Virginia, now met in General Aſſembly, beg Leave to return your Honour our ſincere and hearty Thanks, for your affectionate Speech at the Opening of this Seſſion.

We are truly ſenſible, Sir, of the many Inſtances of your aſſiduous Attention to His Majeſty's Service, and the Intereſt of this Colony, during the Time you have preſided over us; and we aſſure your Honour, that the freſh Proofs His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to give us, of His paternal Affection and Regard, will not fail to have a proper Influence on our Minds.

Our own Knowledge of the Neceſſity of maintaining a ſtrict Friendſhip with the Indians, eſpecially in this Conjuncture, and of a mutual Aſſiſtance to defeat the Deſigns of our Enemies, ſtrengthened by the Recommendation of ſuch a Conduct to us by His Majeſty, indiſpenſibly obliges us, zealouſly to concur in all ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be judged moſt conducive to theſe ſalutary Ends, and to the Support of His Majeſty's Rights, and the Intereſts and Security of His Subjects in America.

And we intreat you, Sir, to be perſuaded we ſhall pay a moſt chearful and exact Regard to every Article you have ſubmitted to our Conſideration, and contribute all in our Power towards conducting and concluding the Buſineſs of this Seſſion to the general Good of the Country, and of Conſequence to your Honour's Satisfaction.

To which His Honour was pleaſed to return the following ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Council,

I Thank you for your kind and affectionate Addreſs: It gives me great Pleaſure and Satisfaction, that the Diſcharge of my Duty, ſince I had the Honour of preſiding over this Dominion, meets with your Approbation.

And that you ſo chearfully obſerve His Majeſty's tender Care, and paternal Affection for us; with your Reſolution to attend to the Methods preſcribed for obtaining and continuing the Friendſhip of the Indians in the Britiſh Intereſt; and thereby, with our Aſſiſtance, defeating the Deſigns of our Enemies: As alſo your juſt Opinion of the Neceſſity at this Time of having a mutual Supply.

I am very ſenſible of your ſtrict Attachment in aſſiſting me to obey the Orders and Commands of His Majeſty. And at the ſame Time I now acknowledge myſelf very happy, in having Gentlemen of your Probity and good Senſe, appointed by His Majeſty, to aſſiſt and adviſe me in the Diſcharge of the Requiſites of my Government.

November 3, 1753.

To the Honourable ROBERT DINWIDDIE, Eſq; His Majeſty's Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, of the Colony and Dominion of VIRGINIA,

The humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of BURGESSES.

SIR,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgeſſes of Virginia, now met in General Aſſembly, return your Honour our Thanks, for your Speech at the Opening of this Seſſion.

With Hearts full of Duty and Gratitude for the paternal Care His Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed to extend to us, His diſtant Subjects, we beg Leave to aſſure your Honour, of our inviolable Fidelity and Affection to His Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and our Zeal for the Continuance of the Britiſh Crown, in His Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe.

We will take the important Matters recommended to us by your Honour, under our ſerious Conſideration, with that Calmneſs and Unanimity, as will demonſtrate our ſteady and firm Attachment to the true Intereſt of our Country.

The Laws, on which our Support and Preſervation depend, require our ſtricteſt Attention, and we ſhall pay all due Regard to ſuch Remarks as your Honour ſhall think fit to lay before us, and purſue ſuch Meaſures as ſhall ſeem moſt likely to procure the ſalutary Ends propoſed by them.

To which His Honour was pleaſed to return the following ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

I Return you my ſincere Thanks for your kind Addreſs.

I am thoroughly convinced of your Duty and Attachment to His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and am in great Hopes, that during the Proceedings of your Houſe, on the Affairs recommended to you in my Speech, you will diſtinguiſh yourſelves in every Point, ſo that you may prove an Example to our neighbouring Governments, of our Zeal and Compliance in ſuch Things as the preſent Situation of our Affairs requires.

I ſhall very ſoon lay before you ſuch Remarks as occur to me, in Regard to the Militia, and doubt not of your purſuing every Meaſure that may prove of Service to this Dominion.

ANNAPOLIS, November 5.

His Excellency the Governor communicated to the Lower Houſe, the following Meſſage (and a Letter dated at Whitehall the 28*th of* Auguſt, Signed HOLDERNESSE) viz.

Gentlemen of the Lower Houſe of Aſſembly,

HIS Majeſty out of a tender Regard for the Lives and Fortunes of his Subjects in this, as well as the neighbouring Provinces, has commanded the Secretary of State to adviſe us of the Danger of ſuffering a foreign Power to intrude, and make Settlements on any of his Majeſty's American Dominions: Our Intereſt in ſuch an Event, tho' his Majeſty had not been pleaſed to ſignify his Royal Pleaſure, would make this Affair worthy our moſt ſerious Conſideration; but when you ſee by that Letter from the Earl of Holderneſſe, that ſhould the neighbouring Colonies make Application to us for Aſſiſtance, I might be under a Neceſſity of convening you without Reſpect to the Inclemency of the Seaſon, or other Inconveniences, unleſs before the Concluſion of this Seſſion a Fund be eſtabliſhed for ſuch Uſes; I make no Doubt but the Conſideration of the vaſt Expence extraordinary Meetings of Aſſembly occaſion to the Country, and alſo that it is not ſo eaſy and practicable to raiſe Money upon an Emergency as properly to apply it, will induce you to conſider at this Time our Indian Allies, whoſe Affections the French will endeavour by every Artifice to alienate from our Intereſt: And on this Occaſion my Duty obliges me earneſtly to recommend to you the Revival of the Law for Arms and Ammunition, without which, we ſhall, in Caſe of an Attack, be unable to defend our private Properties, much leſs to join the neighbouring Colonies, to manifeſt our Duty and Loyalty, by repelling the Violence of any Enemy, and preventing an Invaſion or Attempt upon his Majeſty's Dominions on this Continent.

HORATIO SHARPE.

November 16. 1753.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Eſq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND,

The humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of DELEGATES.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

IN Anſwer to your Excellency's Meſſage, with the Earl of HOLDERNESSE's Letter, we aſſure your Excellency we have that due Senſe of our moſt gracious Sovereign's paternal Tenderneſs for, and Care of, all his Subjects, which Duty and Gratitude inſpire, and are ſufficiently apprehenſive of the great Danger of ſuffering a foreign Power to encroach upon any Part of his Majeſty's Dominions: We are determined reſolutely to repel, in the beſt Manner we can, all hoſtile Invaſions of this Province, by any foreign Power; and whenever the Circumſtances of our neighbouring Colonies may require, or need our Aſſiſtance, we ſhall chearfully contribute, as far as we are able, towards defending them againſt the Attacks of their Enemies. But as there does not appear, at preſent, to be any preſſing Occaſion for impoſing a Tax upon the People for theſe Purpoſes, we hope, that our Unwillingneſs to do it at this Time, will be rather aſcribed to the real Motive of our Conduct, a prudent Care of, and Regard to, the Intereſts of our Conſtituents, than any Diſinclination to the Service recommended.

On your recommending the Revival of the Act for Arms and Ammunition, we muſt (tho' with Reluctance) obſerve to your Excellency, that under Colour of an Act of Aſſembly, made in the Year Seventeen Hundred and Four, when this Province was under the immediate Protection of the Crown, the Sum of Twelve-pence per Hogſhead, on all Tobacco exported out of this Province, has been, and ſtill is, collected and paid the Lord Proprietary; Three-pence of which Twelve-pence per Hogſhead, when that Act was in Force, was, by the Inſtructions of her moſt gracious Majeſty Queen ANNE to her Governor here, applied towards a Supply of Arms and Ammunition; and although it is the Senſe of this Houſe, that the abovementioned Act could not continue longer than during the Time the Government of this Province was in the Crown, and therefore, as they conceive, cannot now be in Force, yet it is thought but juſt and reaſonable, while that Duty is collected, that Three-pence, Part thereof, ſhould be applied, as during the Continuance of the abovementioned Act, to a Supply for Arms and Ammunition; and for this Reaſon we cannot, conſiſtently with our Duty, and the Truſt repoſed in us by our Conſtituents, conſent to a Revival of that Act.

November 17, 3753.

His Excellency the Governor made the following Speech to the Upper and Lower Houſes of Aſſembly, viz.

Gentlemen,

I CANNOT but take Occaſion, before we conclude this Seſſion, to return you Thanks for the Hopes you have given me of an eaſy Adminiſtration, by your general Behaviour during this long Aſſembly; as well as the particular Regard you have ſhewn to myſelf. Indeed the Harmony which ſeemed to ſubſiſt between your Two Houſes, induced me to think every Thing would be amicably concluded, in reſpect to the Journal; and tho' Time will not permit you to put the laſt Hand to that Affair at preſent, yet I hope the Satisfaction and Content of your Conſtituents, will induce you, at your next Meeting, to remove every Occaſion of Diſpute between the ſeveral Branches of the Legiſlature. Your Diſpoſition, which appears in your Yeſterday's Addreſs, to lend your utmoſt Aſſiſtance to the neighbouring Colonies, in caſe of an Attack, gives me great Satisfaction: And I am perſuaded you will lay no farther Streſs on thoſe Objections to the Revival of the Law for Arms, which have been ſo fully anſwered by my Predeceſſors.

As the Welfare of the Province has been your ſole Care here, I doubt not but your Influence in the ſeveral Counties, will contribute to the ſame, which I again aſſure you no one can be more truly concerned for than myſelf.

Gentlemen,

I have, with the Advice of his Lordſhip's Council of State, thought fit to prorogue this Aſſembly to the ſecond Tueſday in February next; and you are to take Notice you are prorogued to that Day accordingly.

EDINBURGH, October 9.

B*Y Letters received laſt Poſt from Dantzick, we have the melancholy News of the Death of Capt. King, Commander of the Prince of Wales Greenlandman, who periſhed on the* 14*th of September laſt, in endeavouring to ſave an Engliſh Boat in great Diſtreſs, in the Road of that City. Captain King had gone a Voyage to Dantzick, and his Ship was lying in the Road when they ſpied this Boat endeavouring to make their own Ship; but the Sea running very high, and the Weather being very ſtormy, they were in the utmoſt Danger of periſhing.*

Captain

Captain King, as ſoon as he ſaw them, reſolved to loſe his own Life or to ſave theirs, but the Event did not anſwer ſo generous a Deſign, for he with three of his Crew, as well as the Engliſh Boat, with all her Hands, were ſoon ſwallowed up by the Waves, only one Boy belonging to Captain King, being providentially ſaved.

Dublin, Sept. 11. Oats, and all Sorts of Grain, are allowed to be much better this Harveſt, than they have been for twelve Years paſt, and the After-Graſs in the greateſt Plenty and Perfection.

From Waterford of the 8th Inſtant we are adviſed, that the Linen Manufacturers of that Place ſhipped that Day for Briſtol 338 Pieces of Linen Cloth, containing 2765 Yards.------This Quantity, and the others formerly mention'd, muſt give the higheſt Satiſfaction, to all Lovers of their Country, to ſee that beneficial Branch of our Trade flouriſh in the ſouthern Parts of this Kingdom.

Sept. 18. Vaſt Quantities of Herrings and other Fiſh have been caught on our neighbouring Coaſts, and are ſtill continued to be caught, which has been a great Relief to the Poor, and lowered the Price of Proviſions.

LONDON, September 15.

A private Letter from Edinburgh informs us, that William Crawford, Janitor of the high School there, a Man ſomewhat in Years, having been thrice proclaimed in the Kirk, went thither with all his Friends, and waited ſome Hours, expecting his Bride; at laſt he received a Ticket from her, in theſe Terms, "William, you muſt know, I am pre-engaged, I never yet could like a burnt Cuttie. I have now by the Hand, my ſonſy manly Strapper, with whom I intend to ſpend my youthful Days. You know old Age and young cannot agree well together; excuſe me then, old Friend, for in Faith I will not ha' thee"-----The good Man not taking this Diſappointment much to Heart, only ſaid, "Come, let us at leaſt keep the Feaſt on the Feaſt Day; Dinner will be ready, and let us drink and drive Care away; and may never greater Misfortue beſal an honeſt Man." Accordingly they went back to Dinner, and from the Company convened the rejected Bridegroom got 100 Marks and all Charges, with which he was perfectly ſatisfied, and thought himſelf at leaſt as well off as his Rival.

Sept. 29. A Subſcription is now carrying on at Hull, for the Whale-Fiſhery, and at the firſt Meeting there was upwards of 20,000 l. ſubſcribed.

They write from Dublin, that the Maſters, Wardens, and Brethren of the Guild of Merchants, have come to an unanimous Reſolution, that Application be made to the Repreſentatives of that City in Parliament to move the Houſe, as early as poſſible, for Leave to bring in Heads of a Bill for the further Encouragement and Improvement of their Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures.

Letters from Dreſden inſinuate, that in order to induce the King of Poland to accede to the Triple Alliance of the North, Overtures have been made not only to procure the Poliſh Crown for the Electoral Prince of Saxony at the next Vacancy, but alſo to ſettle a younger Brother of that Houſe in the Dutchy of Courland, as ſoon as a convenient Opportunity ſhall offer, or whenever any Attempts may be made to procure that Dutchy for a Brother of his Pruſſian Majeſty.

We learn by Letters from Madrid, that the great Drought, which has entirely deſtroyed the Harveſt this Year, in almoſt every Part of the Kingdom, ſtill continues; and Publick Proceſſions are again ordered to be made for Rain.

According to the laſt Letters from Liſbon, his Moſt Faithful Majeſty is as much offended, as his Catholick Majeſty, with the Treaty concluded by the King of Denmark with the Emperor of Morocco; and there is a Probability of his prohibiting the Danes all Trade with Portugal.

October 6. The Drought which has ſo long prevailed in Portugal, having done great Damage to the Corn, Orders have been ſent to England, to buy up a large Quantity for a Supply, in order to prevent the Scarcity the Inhabitants of Liſbon are threatened with.

The Fleet of Obſervation that is now forming for the Channel, will be under the Command of Admiral Boſcawen.

October 8. Yeſterday a Woman found Means to get into a Perſon's Houſe at Lambeth, who keps an Earthen-ware-ſhop, and concealed herſelf under a Bed, with an Intent, as is ſuppos'd, to let in her Accomplices, at a convenient Hour, to rob the Houſe; but the Man ſtaying out later than uſual, and coming to the Door about one a Clock in the Morning, knocked gently; when the Woman, expecting it was her Aſſociates, opened the Door; but finding her Miſtake, ſhe ran down in the Cellar, whither he followed her; and a Light being ſtruck, ſhe was found dreſſed in the Cloaths the Woman of the Houſe put off, when ſhe went to Bed. She was ſecured that Night; and on Saturday, was carried before Juſtice Clark, who committed her to the New-Goal.

Oct. 10. It is ſaid, that ſome Royal Grants of ſeveral Parcels of waſte Lands in this Kingdom, will paſs next Seſſions of Parliament, for the Encouragement of ſeveral Manufactures, and for the Employment of the Poor: And that a Bill will then be brought into Parliament, for appropriating the Site of the late diſſolv'd Royal Hoſpital of the Savoy, with all its Revenues, which are very conſiderable, for the better Support and Maintenance of ſuch a Number of the Widows of the Clergymen, and to ſuch other particular Uſes as may beſt anſwer the pious Intention of its Royal Founder, Henry VII.

Captain M'Cleve is arriv'd at New-York from London; but the Poſt not coming in till this Day at Ten a Clock, and going out again in the Afternoon, we are oblig'd to defer the Engliſh Advices till next Week.

BOSTON, November 26.

About Nine a Clock laſt Monday Evening, a Quarrel happened between George Kelly, alias William Welſh, a Seafaring Man, and Darby O' Brian, a Butcher, (both Iriſhmen) when Kelly ſtabbed or cut O' Brian in the Belly with a Knife, ſo deſperately, that his Bowels came out. He lay in great Miſery till the next Night, and then died. The Coroner's Inqueſt have found it wilful Murder, and Kelly is now in Goal.

Laſt Week we had three Ships from London, and Yeſterday came in another, from the ſame Place, with one from Newcaſtle, and one from Briſtol. 'Tis ſaid, we have had no leſs than twelve Veſſels from London, this Fall already, and that ſome others are yet expected.

NEW-YORK, December 10.

Captain M'Cleve informs us, that Capt. Walton, in the Snow Prince of Wales of this Port, and a Brig for Rhode-Iſland, were to ſail from London in a Day or two after him. On the firſt Inſtant in Latitude 38, 27, Capt. M'Cleve ſpoke with Capt. Wanton, in a Brig from Rhode-Iſland for Barbados; and the Day following, with Capt. In the thick Weather on Friday laſt, Captain Hubbell, in a Sloop, bound in from Antigua, ran on the Eaſt-Bank; the Crew got all ſafe aſhore, but the Veſſel now lies in ſuch a Condition, that it is thought almoſt impracticable that either ſhe or the Cargo can be ſaved.

PHILADELPHIA, December 13.

Extract of a Letter from Bridgetown, in Barbados, dated November 5. 1753.

"We have lately been in a good Deal of Confuſion here, occaſion'd by the Negroes, a Number of whom, for ſome Time paſt, have done Abundance of Miſchief. A white Man, paſſing quietly along one Night, about Nine a Clock, was met with by four of them, who knock'd him down, and cut and bruiſed him in ſo cruel a Manner, that he died ſoon after. Three of the Fellows are taken, two of which have been gibbeted, and the Trial of the third comes on To-morrow; the reſt not yet found. We are oblig'd to have a Number of Men to watch the Town every Night, and a Company of Horſemen patrole daily round the Iſland. One of the Negroes (who is ſtill alive in the Gibbets, tho' he has been up eight Days) told the Magiſtrates, that Chriſtmas Eve (had it not been diſcover'd) was the Time intended for the Deſtruction of the Town, and its Inhabitants."

By Captain M'Cleve, (who has been 35 Days from the Land) there is Advice, that the Addiſon, M'Cullough, and the White-Oak, Lyon, both of this Port, are ſafe arriv'd in London: And that Captain Davis was to ſail two Days after him for this Place.

We hear from the Capes, that a great Number of Veſſels (moſt of which had been kept ſome Time at Reedy-Iſland by contrary Winds) got to Sea on Sunday laſt.

THE Iriſh Houſe of Lords, in their Addreſs to the King, 'humbly offer to his Majeſty their ſincere 'Thanks for the Inſtance he hath been graciouſly 'pleaſed to give them of his Attention and Regard to the Intereſt and Welfare of that Kingdom, 'in continuing his Grace the Duke of Dorſet their Chief Governor, of whoſe Abilities and Fidelity his Majeſty has had ſo full Experience, in the ſeveral important Truſts which have been repoſed in him, and which he has diſcharged with the greateſt Honour to himſelf, and Advantage to the Public.'

The Houſe of Commons in their Addreſs ſay, we return our humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for continuing his Grace the Duke of Dorſet in the Government of this Kingdom, from whoſe Experience of our Loyalty and Zeal for your Majeſty's Service, from whoſe juſt Regard to the Honour of the Crown, and ſincere Wiſhes for the Proſperity of this Country, we may reaſonably expect that the Buſineſs of this Seſſion will be carried on with Candour, Temper, and Unanimity.'

To his Grace LIONEL Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant-General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble ADDRESS of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly preſent to your Grace our Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne; and beg Leave to declare, unanimouſly, our unfeigned Joy upon your Grace's Return to the Government of this Kingdom.

Our Experience of that Candour, which adds Luſtre to the many eminent Virtues inherent in your Grace, will not ſuffer us to doubt, that we have been, and ſhall be, upon all Occaſions, faithfully repreſented to his Majeſty by your Grace, as moſt zealouſly devoted to his Sacred Perſon, Royal Family, and Government.

We ſhould as ill conſult our Intereſt as our Dignity, did we not reſolve fully to anſwer your Grace's juſt Expectations, by conducting all our Proceedings with Candour, Temper and Unanimity: They are the genuine Reſult of our affectionate Duty to the beſt of Princes, and will be the ſtrongeſt Proof of our Zeal for the true Intereſt of our Country.

The Proteſtant Charter Schools, eſtabliſhed under the happy Influence of your Grace's former Government, and upon all Occaſions affectionately recommended by your Grace, are deſervedly the Object of our conſtant Attention; and we ſhall induſtriouſly improve every Opportunity of extending the Benefits of that wiſe and uſeful Inſtitution.

The Aſſurance of your Grace's Aſſiſtance, ſo often and ſo ſignally experienced, cannot fail to animate our Endeavours for the further Advancement of the Linen Manufacture, the moſt valuable and important Branch of our Trade: The preſent flouriſhing State of we may thankfully attribute to the repeated Inſtances of his Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, and rely, with all dutiful Confidence, on the Continuance of the ſame Royal Favour and Protection.

Your Grace has, with the juſteſt Reaſon, declined making Profeſſions of your Zeal for the Welfare of this Kingdom. Your Grace's Conduct through the whole Courſe of your former and preſent Adminiſtration is our ſure Pledge of your unalterable Regard to the true Intereſt of Ireland.

Warm with theſe Sentiments, we think ourſelves called upon, by every Motive, of Prudence, Gratitude, and Juſtice, chearfully to concur in every Meaſure which may moſt effectually promote the public Service, maintain the Dignity and Honour of his Majeſty's Government, and render it, as far as in us lies, eaſy and happy in your Grace's Hands.

The Lord Lieutenant's ANSWER.

I AM extremely obliged to your Lordſhips for this very affectionate Addreſs. I cannot ſufficiently acknowledge the many Inſtances I have received of your Regard and Approbation. You may depend upon the Continuance of my ſincereſt Endeavours to promote the Proſperity and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

To his Grace LIONEL Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant-General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble ADDRESS of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, return your Grace our moſt humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne, and beg Leave, at the ſame Time, to congratulate your Grace on your Return to the Government of this Kingdom.

The Juſtice your Grace does to our zealous Affection to his Majeſty, your faithful Repreſentations of our inviolable Attachment to his Sacred Perſon, Royal Family, and Government; your Regard to the Honour of his Crown; and your ſincere Wiſhes for the Proſperity of this Kingdom, cannot fail of raiſing in us proper Acknowledgments, and of engaging us to proceed in the Buſineſs of this Seſſions with Candour, Temper and Unanimity.

The Support of his Majeſty's Dignity, the Eaſe and Honour of the Government of this Kingdom, can never be out of the View of the moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects to the beſt of Kings.

We entirely rely on his Majeſty's gracious Favour and Protection in providing for the Support and Encouragement of our Linen Manufacture. Your Grace's Promiſe to aſſiſt the farther Advancement of it, and your recommending to our Care the wiſe and uſeful Inſtitution of the Proteſtant Charter Schools, are pleaſing Inſtances of your Grace's Attention to the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

It is our Inclination as well as Duty to act in Concert with your Grace, in the Purſuit of the true Intereſt of our Country; and we promiſe ourſelves, from the great Truſt his Majeſty has repoſed in your Grace, and from your Experience of our Loyalty and Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, all Advantages a moſt dutiful and loyal People may expect.

The Lord Lieutenant's ANSWER.

I Return you my ſincere Thanks for this very obliging Addreſs. It gives me the higheſt Satisfaction, to find that my Endeavours for promoting the Proſperity, and the true Intereſt of this Kingdom, meet with the unanimous Approbation of the Houſe of Commons.

Madrid, Auguſt 28. The King has again ordered publick Prayers for Rain, of which this Country is in very great Want. The Rain which fell about two Months ſince was too inconſiderable to have any great Effect upon the Ground, which the raging Heat of the Sun has made ſo dry that all our Paſtures are burnt up, and all Sorts of Proviſions are at an exceſſive high Price; that of Bread increaſes every Day in the Inland Part of the Kingdom, where foreign Corn does not come. The Scarcity of Barley and Straw, with which our Draught Cattle are generally fed, makes the Price of Carriage every where exorbitant, and in many Places the Dearneſs of Corn and Fodder, has induced private People to ſell their Mules, and their Equipages.

Genoa, September 3. The Treaty lately concluded between the Empreſs Queen and the Duke of Modena, relative to the Milaneſe, &c. ſeems to give much Uneaſineſs to this Republick; Orders have been given to complete all their Regiments, to which Purpoſe they enliſt the Deſerters, who come in daily from Alexandria, Tortonia, &c. They have likewiſe begun to remount the Cannon round the Walls, eſpecially towards the Sea. Mr. Grimaldi is expected from Corſica, but as yet the Republick have not appointed the Perſon who is to ſucceed him as Commiſſary General; it has been propoſed to ſeveral of the Nobility, but the Acceptance thereof has hitherto been declined: The Situation of Affairs in that Iſland are ſtill greatly embroil'd, and the Malecontents obſtinately refuſe to treat with, or return to the Obedience of the Republick, and have made ſome Overtures to the Emperor's Counſul at Nunza, to put themſelves under the Imperial Protection, and to annex the Iſland to the Dukedom of Tuſcany: The Conſul declin'd making the Propoſal to the Court of Vienna, and it is uncertain whether they have made Application directly themſelves. There is a Miſunderſtanding between the Chiefs of the Malecontents, and M. Gafforio has been diſmiſſed from his Employments.

Genoa, September 23. The Government has publiſhed an Edict, importing, 'That tho' the Rebellion of the People of San Remo, was ſo enormous that it rendered them unworthy of any Pardon, yet willing to exerciſe her Clemency on the preſent Occaſion, ſhe vouchſafes to grant a general Pardon to all who were involved in the ſaid Rebellion, and ſhall return within the Space of one Month, if they are not above 100 Miles diſtant, and within ſix Months, if they are at a greater diſtance. [illegible] Perſons, are excepted in this Act of Indemnity.

Madrid, October 1. A Letter from Faro, dated Auguſt 15, adviſes, that two Days before, the Captain of a Catalan Veſſel, which anchor'd off that Place, wrote to the Spaniſh Conſul, that he had met at Sea a Brigantine without any People on board, which by the Papers he judged to be Engliſh, for which Reaſon he deſired that one of that Nation might be ſent to him. Accordingly John Lampriere, a Britiſh Merchant, went immediately, when the Captain informed him, that about Eight that Morning he met the Brigantine at Sea, and ſuſpecting by her ſailing that ſhe had no one to direct her Courſe, he ſent ſome of his Men in his Boat to examine her, who did not find any living Creature on board; they obſerved every Thing in great Diſorder, the Maſter's Eſcrutore broke open, and ſome Blood dried upon the Floor near the Cabbin, by which they imagined ſome Violence had been committed. Mr. Lampriere went immediately on board the Brigantine to take Poſſeſſion of her, when he found all the Catalan had ſaid to be exactly true, and her Cargo untouch'd. By the Papers found on board, it appeared that this Veſſel is the Chriſtopher, John Herron, Maſter, bound from Malaga to Dublin. There were ſeveral Bills of Lading in the Cabbin, and a rough Journal continued as far as Six a Clock in the Afternoon of Friday the 10th of Auguſt, but no Mediterranean Paſs. Since receiving the above Account from Faro, we have been informed from Cadiz, that upon News being received there of what had happened to this Engliſh Brigantine, they had ſtopped a ſmall Veſſel, which had been obſerved to put in ſeveral Times at a Place called Huelva, in Andaluſia; five of her Crew were taken; but the reſt, amounting to about twenty more, were ſaid to be gone upon an Expedition, to ſeize two new Xebecks that were in a ſmall Port near Huelva, called Moguer. Theſe Letters add, that this Gang of Pirates conſiſt of People of ſeveral Nations, and that the five who were taken were to be tried in a ſhort Time, when it was not doubted but they would, among other Things, confeſs the above Affair, as Pieces of the Mediterranean Paſs belonging to the Brigantine, were, it is ſaid, found upon them.

An Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated October 6.

“People begin to ſuſpect that the Syſtem of the Spaniſh Miniſtry is not ſo pacifick as it has been imagined to be, and that there is great Probability that the Diligence that has been uſed to re-eſtabliſh their Marine, was not ſo much to check the Corſairs of Barbary which has been given out, as to put themſelves in a Condition, without giving Suſpicion to other Powers, of their executing the Project that they have form'd of excluding the Maritime Powers from carrying on any Commerce in America; for under Pretence of hindering a Contraband Trade, their pretended Guarda-Coſtas interrupt all Kind of Navigation in the Gulph of Mexico, and keep the Iſlands of Coracoa and St. Euſtatia, which belong to the Dutch, as it were block'd up; all the Remonſtrances of the Ambaſſador of their High Mightineſſes for redreſſing theſe Grievances having hitherto proved ineffectual, which cannot fail of having bad Conſequences. It is true, that the Marine of the Republick is not in a Condition to terrify theſe Guarda-Coſtas, who are no better than the Barbary Corſairs, exerciſing their Piracies under the Cloak of their Commiſſions as Guarda-Coſtas. This is what Mr. Keene has very forcibly repreſented: In order to appeaſe him, the Spaniſh Miniſtry have promiſed, that they would ſend expreſs Orders to the Governors, to keep theſe Guarda-Coſtas within the Bounds of their Commiſſions, and to make them pay, without ſhewing them any Favour, the Damage which they do the Engliſh Ships. The Governors receive theſe Orders, but go on in their old Way, and condemn Ships as before; and the Reaſon is, becauſe they have a large Share of the Captures made by this Species of Pirates: Whereupon new Complaints are made, which are ſilenced by freſh Promiſes: This gains Time, and that is employ'd with the utmoſt Diligence in augmenting their Marine, eſpecially in the Ports of Galicia and Valentia; ſo that when it is in a Condition of ſtriking an important Blow, Motives for ſo doing will not be wanting, if they were none but what might be drawn from the Severity of Admiral Knowles upon ſome of the pretended Guarda-Coſtas. The Engliſh will not then fail of preſſing their High Mightineſſes to make a common Cauſe of it; they will appeal to Treaties; their High Mightineſſes will have nothing to alledge in Excuſe for not doing ſo, but the ill State of their Marine: Then, to effectually prevent their entring into the Engliſh Meaſures, the Guarda-Coſtas will retire from before Coracoa and St. Euſtatia, and Europe will be in very much the ſame State as it was in the Year 1738, when the Spaniards every where took the Engliſh Ships under the moſt frivolous Pretences. This is the Way of reaſoning in certain Courts, that would almoſt neceſſarily be engaged in theſe new Quarrels, which would in all Likelihood involve all Europe in a War.”

LONDON, October 17.

They write from Moſcow, that they are no longer under Apprehenſions of any Diſputes with the Turks, who have expreſly declared, that they have been no Way concerned in the Incurſions made by the Tartars, and do not look upon uſing thoſe Freebooters as they deſerve as any Act of Hoſtility againſt the Porte.

By Letters from Yarmouth of the 4th Inſtant, a Town Boat brought Advice, that one of the Society's Buſſes had hauled five Laſts of Herrings that Morning.

October 20. His Majeſty's Ship the Cumberland, lately put into Commiſſion, and the Command given to Capt. Thomas Andrews, is ordered to be manned and victualled at Chatham.

The firſt Inſtant, between 12 and 1 a Clock at Night, the Houſe of Thomas Nugent, Eſq; of Donore, in the County of Weſtmeath, in Ireland, was conſumed to Aſhes, with all the Plate, Jewels, China, Houſhold Furniture, and Wearing Apparel, in the Whole to the Value of 4000 l. beſides the Houſe. Mr. and Mrs. Nugent, with three Children, and five Gentlemen, with great Difficulty eſcaped the Flames naked, loſing their Gold Watches and Snuff-boxes. There was laid in his Wine-cellar above 400 l. Worth of different Wines. The Houſe, tho' three Stories high, and very large, with two Returns, was conſumed in leſs than one Hour. This Misfortune happened by a Maid's leaving a Candle near the Wainſcot when ſhe went to Bed.

We have Letters from Amſterdam, which ſay, that the Spaniſh Miniſter makes loud Complaints of the Contraband Trade in the Weſt-Indies, at the ſame Time that the Inhabitants of the Dutch Iſlands aſ[illegible] Trade is interrupted, and almoſt loſt, through the Depredations of the Spaniſh Privateers, which are daily augmenting in Number and in Force.

Oct. 22. Orders are ſent to Portſmouth, by the Right Hon. the Lords of the Admiralty, to enter fifty Men on board each of the following Ships, viz. The Terrible, Captain, Monarch, Feugueux, Kent, Anſon, and Tyger Guardſhips, in that Harbour; and Orders are alſo ſent to unrig the four laſt mentioned Ships, for them to be docked and fitted for Service.

His Majeſty's Forces in Nova-Scotia, and others of his Plantations abroad, are ordered to be reinforced, and in a few Days Recruits will be ſhipped for that Purpoſe.

The News from Amſterdam and the Hague inform us, that they had received freſh Advices there, of ſeveral Dutch Ships having been taken by the Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas in America; and they tell us, that the News from London repreſent to them the ſame Conduct of theſe armed Veſſels towards the Ships carrying Britiſh Colours, as if the Spaniſh Nation was actually at War with the two Maritime Powers. A Miniſter of great Capacity, who has been in a publick Station till he is even grown old in it, reflecting upon this Proceeding of the Miniſtry of Aranjuez, as well in Europe as in America, foretels, in a Letter which he wrote to a Friend, that the Spaniſh Loftineſs and Pride was preparing for Europe the Spectacle of a new Rupture; which was the more to be apprehended, as it would not break out till after thoſe whom it threatened, ſhould have let the Opportunity ſlip of preventing it in its Origin. To the above Prediction this Miniſter added, that the Conſequence of this new Rupture would be the ſame, as that of the laſt between England and Spain; for that the Spaniards having but very few Merchant Ships at Sea, have little or nothing to fear from the Superiority of the Maritime Forces of the Engliſh, and that they have ſtill leſs Reaſon to be afraid of them upon Terra firma, where they have the ſame Superiority as the others have by Sea. How numerous and well armed ſoever the Shepherds who keep their Sheep in a Foreſt may be, the Wolves inhabiting the Center of it frequently iſſue forth to fall upon the Flocks, and commonly obtain ſuch real Advantages as abundantly indemnifies them for the Blows which they from Time to Time receive.

An Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Halifax, in Nova-Scotia, to his Friend in London, dated July 31, 1753.

“Agreeable to my Promiſe, I here ſend you a ſhort Account of the Tranſactions of our New World. I do ſuppoſe, that few People in Old England know the Extent or Boundaries of this Country. The Province of Nova-Scotia, is as large as England, Scotland, and Wales, put together. It reaches within ſeven Leagues of Quebec; and the Kenebec River parts the New-England Government from us: So that the Extent of Land, agreeable to Charlevoix's Hiſtory, and the ancient Boundaries, is very large; but the French claim at leaſt one Half of this Country as their own, and have carried the Point ſo far as to erect Forts and Garriſons at two ſeveral Places, which are very important Places for them: The one is at Chignecto, at the Head of Funday Bay; the other at the River of St. John, which River runs up, by the beſt Accounts I can get, within a few Leagues of Quebec; and will be of the utmoſt Conſequence to them, as they will be able to ſend up by it all their Goods, and conſequently ſecure all the valuable Branch of the Fur Trade, and alſo bring all their valuable Goods down the ſaid River, avoiding the dangerous Navigation of the River of St. Lawrence, by which they ſuffer much through the Loſs of many of their Ships, in going up, and coming down: If your Government ſuffer this, it will be of fatal Conſequence to the Eaſtern Parts of New-England, as well as to the Province of Nova-Scotia. In ſhort, if the French are allowed to keep this Poſt, it will be more dangerous to theſe Parts, than a Dunkirk would be to your Trade in Time of War. I know proper Accounts have been ſent of this to your leading Men, but how it happens that nothing has been done, is to me very aſtoniſhing. How abſurd is it to make Repreſentations to the Court of France, and ſend Commiſſaries to treat for two or three Years, while the French in the mean Time fortify themſelves, and ſo laugh at you? Poor England! How degenerate art thou grown? Why not ſend your Wooden Caſtles, and beat their Works about their Ears, and then let them complain? Don't ſuffer yourſelves to be diſpiſed and made the laughing-ſtock of all the Powers in Europe: Where is old Engliſh Courage? Is nothing elſe to be minded, but the ſecuring a Majority at the next Election? What ſhall we dwindle to at laſt? Sure there will be an End to the Lethargy you have got into. In ſhort, if you don't ſettle the Boundaries of this Country on your Side of the Water, and put Things on a better Footing in this Province, I believe there will be but little Occaſion for us here, for when I tell you there are 30000 French Inhabitants here, you will hardly belive me; but you may depend on it for Truth; and not one ſingle one of them a Proteſtant. How the Engliſh Government could ſuffer ſuch a Number of People to live in one of their Provinces without Government or Laws is amazing to me. The French want to tire us out from ſettling in this Colony, as it is ſo advantageouſly ſituated for us, and can ſo greatly annoy them in Time of War.

"The Town of Halifax is greatly improved in its Buildings, but by ſome Miſmanagement the Trading People are very much diſpleaſed. The regular Troops were ſent here to protect them, but I am afraid, if I dare ſpeak my Mind, they will drive away the other Inhabitants, unleſs the latter be left to govern themſelves, as they muſt neceſſarily know their Buſineſs better than ſuch as have been brought up, in the Military Way. I am a Friend to Trade, and love my Country, and hope I ſhall be able to give you a more pleaſing Account in my next."

KINGSTON, in Jamaica, October 27.

On Monday laſt, about 5 a Clock in the Afternoon, a Thunder-cloud burſt over the Houſe of Mr. Joſeph Gutterres in Orange-ſtreet, which tore off the Shingles of that, and the Houſe of Dr. Chovet, being both under one Roof, at which time the Lightning entered both Houſes. Mrs. Gutteres was then ſitting in a very low Chair in the Back-hall, and the Lightning went over her Head, where it battered the Wall, without offending her; in the firſt Floor it diſperſed itſelf in every Part of the Rooms, ſplintering the Frames of many Pictures that were glazed, without damaging the Glaſſes over them. A dreſſing Looking-glaſs particularly, mounted on two Pillars, and a Neſt of Drawers underneath, had all the Frame and other Wood work ſhaken to Pieces, without ever hurting the Glaſs, ſaving a little of the Quick-ſilver in one of the Corners, which it had melted; it likewiſe paſſed behind a Cheſt of Drawers, where it entered the Crevices, and only cracking the back Part it viſited every Drawer. When this happened Dr. Chovet and his Wiſe were both ſleeping in Bed in their lower Back-room, but being ſuddenly awaked, found themſelves ſurrounded with forked Lightning darting on all Sides of the Room, entring through the Partition-wall, and at the Window, but through the great Mercy of Providence, neither he, nor his Wife were hurt, though the great Quantity of ſulphurous Vapour had almoſt ſuffocated them. The Doctor's Sword and Cane, which ſtood by his Bed-ſide were both ſtruck with the Lightning, and ſo powerful was its Force, that it melted a little of the Gold from the Head of the Cane, and likewiſe ſome Part of the Blade of the Sword near the Point, which ſeemed to have been done without affecting the Scabbard; in the upper Back-room and Garret, it likewiſe committed great Havock, by breaking the Windows, and Frames of the Shutters, it melted likewiſe ſeveral Iron and Steel Inſtruments that were there, but it particularly ſhivered a Fiſhing-rod into ſo many ſmall Splinters, that it appeared like a Bundle of Straw.

His Majeſty's Ship Hind in Kingſton Harbour, had her Main-top-maſt ſhivered to Pieces the ſame Day.

We hear for certain from Carpenter's-River, that the Indians (from a natural Antipathy they have to the Spaniards in thoſe Parts) have gone in a large Body, and burnt, ravaged and deſtroyed their Plantations, and have totally burnt the Cocoa-walks, ſo that we ſhall not, for ſome Time, be ſupplied with that valuable Commodity from that Quarter.

On Wedneſday laſt, a Sailor belonging to the Draper, Capt. Nunes in this Harbour, fell over board, and was immediately tore to Pieces by the ſharks.

PHILADELPHIA, December 20.

Thurſday laſt Captain England arrived here from Jamaica, who informs us, that in his Paſſage outward, on the 21ſt of October, in Lat. 22 30, Long. 70, he ſpoke with a French Ship, bound to Bourdeaux from Cape-Francois, which in the Hurricane, the 6th of October laſt, loſt her Main and Mizen Maſts, ſeven of her Guns, and had three of her Hands waſh'd overboard and drowned. That two Days before he ſailed from Kingſton, a Sloop arrived there, the Captain of which brought Advice of a large Bermudian Brig being aſhore on Crooked-Iſland, but that the Wind blowing hard, he could not learn the Maſter's Name; but ſuppos'd her to be a Brig that had ſailed ſome Time before from thence for London with Sugars. And that on his Paſſage home, on the 20th of laſt Month, off Cape-Nichola, he ſpoke with Capt. Hubbard from this Place for Jamaica, who had been out ſixteen Days, and all well on board; and that he (Hubbard) told him, he had a few Days before ſpoke with the Captains Lake and Rench, both from this Port alſo for Jamaica, who were likewiſe all well on board.

From the Jamaica Papers we have an Account of the following Arrivals there, viz. The Helena, Davies; the Maſſachuſett, Cathcart; the Game-Cock, Fadre; and the Falmouth, Ervin, from Boſton. The Charming Polly, Waldron, from New-York. And the Pembroke, Punter, from Philadelphia.

Since our laſt Captain Keene arrived here from St. Euſtatia, who in his Paſſage met with very hard Gales of Wind, which occaſioned the Springing of his Mainmaſt, and carrying away his Foretopmaſt.

By Captain Drieſcall, from Liſbon, there is Advice of the ſafe Arrival there of the Captains Alliſon and White, both from this Place.

We hear from Cheſter, that ſome Time laſt Week, one of the People belonging to the Goal there, went down to the Dungeon, and found Thomas Brown without his Handcuffs, upon which he immediately went and acquainted the Goaler of it: That while the Perſon was gone he (Brown) with his Garters and Handkerchief, made Shift to hang himſelf up, and was almoſt dead, before they could come to ſecure him; but on taking ſome Blood from him, he was brought to again: And that on ſearching under his Bed, they diſcover'd he had begun to dig up the Pavement, in order to undermine the Foundation, and endeavour to make his Eſcape in that Manner.

Tueſday Morning laſt, between Five and Six a Clock, a Fire broke out in the Houſe of Mr. Andrew Reed, Merchant, in this City, which, beſides deſtroying a Quantity of valuable Houſhold Goods, and about 150 Barrels of Flour and Bread, belonging to different Perſons, did ſome conſiderable Damage to the lower Parts of the Building; but by the great Activity and Induſtry of the People, the Roof and upper Floors were ſaved; and the Houſe being inſur'd, the Damage will be immediately repaired, without Coſt to the Owner. Soon after the Fire was extinguiſhed, a Man was taken up and committed to Goal, for ſtealing Goods while the Houſe was burning, and picking of Pockets.

We hope a deſign of this kind will meet with encouragement, as the only motive that induced the ſociety to enter on ſuch a ſcheme, was their being thoroughly ſenſible of the diſadvantages they labour under, and the great neceſſity there is of a houſe in Germantown, for their miniſter to inſtruct thoſe children in reading and writing, whoſe parents are unable to give them ſuch education; and as the ſociety amongſt themſelves are unable to accompliſh ſuch an undertaking, were importuned to have recourſe to a lottery, in order to enable them to carry on the ſame, as it will tend to the publick good.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

From the WESTMINSTER JOURNAL, September 15. 1753.

To THOMAS TOUCHIT, Eſq;

My worthy Friend,

THE ſcarcity of corn, which, of late, has been ſo rigorouſly felt in Ireland; and the riotous aſſemblies of the mob of that country, makes it worthy the character of an Engliſhman to elucidate this matter, by ſhewing the real ſource from whence ſuch calamities ariſe; which I ſhall endeavour to do n a diſpaſſionate, free, and honeſt manner.

Although the love of eaſe, is, in ſome degree, natural to all ountries; yet, how juſtly the people of Ireland are accuſed of ot taking pains to advance their own profit, and of ſlothfulneſs, ven to a proverb, cannot be fairly determined, without taking an mpartial ſurvey of the natural temper of the Inhabitants; their anner of living; and the inconveniences they labour under, by ant of money, and of laws for the encouragement of TILLAGE.

Were we to judge of the induſtry of the Iriſh, eſpecially of the wer claſs, from their apparent endeavours to ſupport themſelves d their families on this ſide of the water, one might reaſonably agine, that they were imported by the immediate direction of ovidence, to teach their conquerors to know, that all perſons are rn to ſome employment, or other; and that it is ridiculous for y of them to pretend, they have nothing to do: for, whether, om want of Buſineſs at home, they come over to ſtay only a few onths in England, and that during the harveſt, purely to aſſiſt e farmers and graziers in getting in their reſpective crops of hay d corn; or whether they take up their reſidence in this metrolis, to attend the more ſervile employments of the baſket, the ot, the hodd, or the barrow; they are, in theſe ſeveral occutions, indefatigable: nor are thoſe of the middle rank, among leſs vigilant and ſolicitous in their ſtations, to improve their rtune: if they ſeek for preferment, they are importunate; if the army, they are valiant; if in trade, they are circumſpect d aſſiduous; and, notwithſtanding their ſuperior induſtry and rſimony is too often ridiculed here, by their fellow ſubjects, I ill venture to affirm, that, if their people were multiplied, their ade increaſed, and their TILLAGE enlarged, they would, from a udable emulation, be ſoon able to vye with their mother iſland.

As to the ſecond point, which is their manner of living; let y perſon, who has leiſure to make a progreſs through the kingm of Ireland, only obſerve, what a vaſt difference there is been the common people, in the ſeveral parts of it; and he will ot want any other argument in favour of their induſtry, than their ant of TILLAGE: for though the common people in the northn parts, are not much to be boaſted of, for their wealth or maner of living; yet, they are greatly ſuperior to thoſe of the ſture countries: indeed, the poverty of the latter, is ſcarcely to paralleled in any other nation: their cloathing, is rags; their uſes, hovels; fitter for ſwine than human creatures; and the ntineſs, and naſtineſs of their food, are hardly to be conceived. is amazing to behold ſuch a difference in the inhabitants of ſo all a kingdom. A kingdom! bleſſed with all the advantages of ture; a country! by the temper of the climate, favourable to neration, health, and long life; and yet their lands in many ces lie barren and uncultivated. To ſhew the richneſs of the l, I may venture to affirm, that Ireland, inconſiderable as it is in ent, hath exported more beef for many years, than all the reſt Europe; while ſo many thouſand acres lie untilled, as if the ple would not ſubmit to the toil of huſbandry. At the ſame e, in thoſe provinces where tillage and agriculture abounds; rm houſes, clean and decent apparel, wholſome food, manuures, and the proteſtant religion, abound alſo: while among ſe of the paſture countries, there is nothing to be found but ery and poverty; rudeneſs, and barbarity; ſloth, idleneſs, Popiſh ignorance. Hence, it evidently appears to me, that ſloth, with which the people of Ireland are unjuſtly accuſed, ceeds not entirely from the bent of inclination, but from the t of employment in their own country; and this naturally s me to the third article propoſed above, namely, the defect in ir laws for the encouragement of TILLAGE.

Whether this defect is owing to any political cauſe, or to the parony of their ſeveral and reſpective ſuperiors, I ſhall not preſume Judge. It is enough for me to ſay, till I am convinced of the trary, that it is a defect, which demands a ſpeedy and effectual edy. Now, in order to recommend this affair with more reaſon he legiſlature, give me leave to mention ſome advantages, atding agriculture, no leſs valuable to that nation, than even lth itſelf.

he firſt of theſe, is the increaſe of their people. It is evident, the riches and power of every nation depend on the number inhabitants, employed in labour; and it is as certain, that the rging their arable land, would greatly add to the number of r labouring hands. Where paſture prevails, the low people are ervants to the rich; and a limited number of them is ſuffit for that purpoſe, which is the caſe of ſeveral incloſed lord in England. Hence it is, that as the people increaſe in num finding no employment at home, they are under a neceſſity of g abroad into ſome foreign ſervice; or of ſtaying in their own try without any ſettled way of living, in idleneſs and poverty. rience has ſhewn us how the common people have multiplied, the late happy revolution, in the northern parts of Ireland, re tillage hath prevailed; notwithſtanding the multitudes that gone from thoſe parts to America; and it is well known, there has not been any ſuch increaſe of people in the paſture ntries. There we may ſee vaſt tracts of the beſt land in the gdom, almoſt depopulated; inhabited only by a few wretches, rſed among the beaſts of the field; enjoying life, pardon the ſion, in ſo miſerable a ſtate of poverty and barbariſm, as is [illegible] a reproach to a chriſtian country; being more vile the condition of Indian ſavages. Here is the true ſeat of So- ſluggard; where he daily views the induſtry of the ant, but ns home not a jot the wiſer.

e employing of their idle hands, is another advantage to be d by the increaſe of their agriculture. Paſture of barren cattle afford but little employment for their labouring people. Tallow capable of much manufacture; beef is not capable of any; ands required for tanning are inconſiderable, when compared the multitudes employed in tillage; and, what makes the caſe ſtill worſe with them in Ireland, they export above one half of their hides green.

Whatever promotes labour increaſes a national wealth. This is a truth clear and certain, beyond all poſſibility of contradiction: labour and inſtuſtry being really the riches of every country; and it is impoſſible that any nation, whoſe hands are fully employed, ſhould ever be indigent.

The want of labour for the common people, is a great occaſion of vice among them: for the idle and indolent are always vicious, as well as poor; but induſtry promotes virtue, at leaſt a ſort of negative virtue, as it prevents vice. A nation, and a private perſon, may be conſidered, for this purpoſe, in the ſame light: induſtry begets wealth and happineſs to both; but poverty and miſery, vice and immorality, are the natural offſpring of idleneſs.

There is yet another advantage to be had from the increaſe of tillage, no leſs valuable than thoſe already mentioned; and that is the improvement of their manufactures. It is certain, that whatever increaſes the demand [illegible] manufactured commodity, encourages ſuch manufacture; and [illegible] as true, that ſelling cheap, is the beſt method of enlarging the demand: for which reaſon, there is nothing ſo effectual, as keeping down the price of labour, which can only be done by increaſing the tillage. When bread is at a low price, the labouring people can afford to work cheap; and, for this reaſon, the price of labour always did, and ever muſt, depend on the price of corn.

Again; the encouragement of tillage in Ireland, would not only improve their manufactures in general, by lowering the price of labour; but would have a particular effect upon the linen manufacture. If gentlemen in the grazing countries, found ploughing more profitable; they would naturally look for tenants, in the populous corn countries of the north, and tranſplant ſuch farmers into the ſouth, who were ſkilful in the linen trade, which would ſoon extend that valuable manufacture over the whole kingdom; and, by the vaſt addition of exports, could not fail of enriching the nation.

The proteſtant religion, as well as the linen manufacture, would hereby be extended into the Popiſh parts of Ireland; which would grealy ſtrengthen and promote the proteſtant intereſt, and ſecure the peace and happineſs of the kingdom.

Laſtly; the miſeries which the common people of Ireland ſuffer from the want of corn, make their neglect of tillage ſtill more ſurpriſing: for there is ſcarcely a bad ſeaſon, in Ireland, that is not followed by a famine, among the poor people; which never fails to drive multitudes of their beſt hands out of the kingdom, to ſeek their bread in foreign countries.

To ſee famine in ſuch a country, is aſtoniſhing! Their ſoil is fruitful; almoſt one half of their hands unemployed; more than one half of their land untilled; and, at the ſame time, their people flying abroad, or dying at home, for want of bread: ſo that, I am apt to think, this would ſeem a paradox any where, but in Ireland. Their policy in this matter, is the more wonderful, in regard that nature has given them advantages in tillage, beyond moſt other countries. The iſland is narrow, and has ſo many natural harbours, that there are few parts of it above thirty miles diſtant from water carriage; and they might excel all the neighbouring nations in land-carriage, in making proper uſe of their materials for roads. Beſides the great number of rivers they abound in; the navigable bays, or arms of the ſea, which in many places, run a conſiderable length into the country; and, above all, the natural goodneſs of the ſoil, are ſo many demonſtrations, that nature intended this iſland for a corn-country.

The love of eaſe, which, as I at firſt obſerved, is, in ſome degree, natural to all countries, inclines men to paſture; inſomuch that all nations, Ireland only excepted, have found it neceſſary to ballance that prevailing inclination of the human mind, by laws for the encouragement of tillage. But as the poor Highlanders of Scotland ſeem to like the heritable juriſdictions of their chiefs, better than the liberties of the reſt of their countrymen; ſo the obſtinate People of Ireland would neglect the encouragement of neceſſary agriculture, and depend upon the ſale of their cattle; tho' it has been proved, that the produce of their tillage would make a ballance of 145,767l. annually more in their Favour, than their cattle; as alſo 3,044l. in the article of butter for exportation, inſtead of uſing the milk for the ſuckling of calves; which is a yearly loſs of 176,214l. to the Iriſh nation.

What can we ſay for this ſurpriſing ſupinity in ſuch a neceſſary article of life, as well as of trade? Nothing but Iriſh inflexibility; and the private gain of ſome graziers, in oppoſition to the publick benefit. But we muſt remember, that after the act in England, in the reign of king Charles II. had wholly ſtopt the exportation of cattle from Ireland, the trade of that Kingdom was forced to find out a new channel; whereby a great deal of land was turned to ſheep; becauſe wool gave ready money for the Engliſh markets, and by ſtealth for thoſe abroad. The breeders of Engliſh cattle, in Ireland, turned much to dairy; or elſe, by keeping their cattle to ſix and ſeven years old, and wintering them dry, made them fit for the beef trade abroad; while ſome of the Iriſh merchants fell into care and exactneſs in barrelling them up; whereby the improvements of this trade were grown ſo inſenſible in the courſe of a few years, that, in 1669, ſome merchants in Holland aſſured Sir William Temple, that they had received parcels of beef out of Ireland, which ſold current and very near the Engliſh; and butter that ſold beyond it. So that it was moſt evident, that, if the Dutch war had not broke out at this time, the improvements of all theſe trades would, in a few years, have very much advanced the trade and riches of Ireland; whereby it would have been a great gainer, inſtead of loſing by the act againſt tranſportation of their cattle.

We muſt alſo obſerve, that theſe improving trades among the people of Ireland, were at firſt forced by neceſſity, and grew afterwards habitual by uſe. We may therefore, with better reaſon, expect the improvement of TILLAGE, not only to anſwer their own neceſſities; but alſo to procure a ſupply for other countries; to which the Iriſh ſhould be the more incited, as our northern colonies in America have turn'd into the beef trade, by ſupplying our ſugar iſlands with ſuch proviſions, as were formerly to be had only from Ireland. But of this another time; only let me aſk you Mr. Touchit, whether a great part of the national caſh in Ireland, has not already been exhauſted, by the importation of foreign corn? Whether the little caſh that remains, is not in danger of going the ſame way? and whether an effectual Law for promoting the TILLAGE of Ireland, a law more effectual than that of the firſt of George II. whereby only five acres in the hundred are ordered to be plowed, and this never put into execution, would not remedy that evil? In fact, whether ſuch a law, will not add to the numbers of the people; employ their hands; improve their manufactures; ſtrengthen the proteſtant intereſt among them; increaſe the national wealth; and, in all human probability, make them a rich, a flouriſhing, and happy people?

I am, honeſt Mr. Touchit, like you, a lover of every thing that belongs to Great-Britain,

Hague, Oct. 12. There is much Talk of a new powerful Alliance, which is forming in the North for eſtabliſhing the Tranquility of that Part of Europe. They begin alſo to talk again of erecting a tenth Electorate in the Empire in Favour of the Houſe of Heſſe Caſſel: It is ſaid that ſome great Steps have already been taken in this Affair, which was brought upon the Carpet when his Brittannic Majeſty was laſt at Hanover: But as Circumſtances were not ſo favourable at that Time as could have been wiſhed, it was poſtponed.

LONDON.

Daily Advertiſer, Sept. 12. Sir, as I was on a Journey in the County of Suffolk, and ſitting at the Door of an Inn in Buddle, a Girl paſt by me, with two Wooden Legs; immediately as ſoon as ſhe was gone by, the Landlord began to tell me the Manner of her becoming lame; which he ſaid was about a Year and a half ago, by having her Legs numbed by being frozen, and ſeveral Surgeons called to conſult, they thought it neceſſary to cut them off, for fear of Mortification; but there being a Surgeon of great Skill in the Town, whoſe Opinion they deſired to have, and he being abſent, they reſolved to wait his Return; who, when he came, declared it as his Opinion, that one, if not both her Legs might be ſaved, therefore adviſed them to ſtay till the Morrow before they ventured to proceed to the Amputation: They followed his Advice, and went away, but the Father of the Girl, being either deſirous, or fearful of the Mortification enſuing, the ſame Night chopped off both his Daughter's Legs with a Hatchet. The Oddneſs of this Fact, which you may rely on as a Truth, is what has determined me to communicate it to the World by the Means of your Paper.

October 20. We learn from Copenhagen, that they have a Project on Foot for improving the Norway Fiſhery, in order to which Inſtructions have been given to the ſeveral Governors of the Ports in that Kingdom to lay before the Council an exact Hiſtorical Account of thoſe Fiſheries for a Century paſt, that proper Methods may be taken for extending the Branches that ſtill ſubſiſt, and reviving thoſe that are decayed.

Tueſday was held a Council at Kenſington, which did not break up till Three in the Afternoon, when a ſpecial Meſſenger was diſpatched to the Court of Berlin.

On the 13th, the Swift Man of War came into Plymouth, and brought in with her a French Smuggler.

We hear by Orders that are ſoon to be iſſued out, no Soldier, for the future, ſhall ſuffer corporal Puniſhment upon the Parade; but that inſtead thereof for ſmaller Crimes, they are to be confined in the Black Hole at the Savoy for ſome Time upon Bread and Water, and for Crimes of a more attrocious Nature to be tranſported to his Majeſty's Colonies abroad.

By Letters from Rotterdam we have an Account, that ſeveral Jews are now in Cuſtody there for forging Lottery Tickets.

The Churchwardens of St. Margaret's Weſtminſter, have agreed, in order to clear their Pariſh of diſorderly People, to ſend out Watchmen without Lanthorns, who are not to call the Hours: They have ſo far ſucceeded in their Deſign, that laſt Sunday Night, no leſs than nine Women were taken up by thoſe Watchmen: Five of whom were admitted to Bail, and the other committed to Bridewell, by Juſtice Manly.

October 23. Some Days ago as a Gentleman's Footman was driving a ſingle Horſe Chaiſe from Swingly Lodge through Windſor Foreſt, he overtook a handſome well dreſs'd Woman going to Windſor, whom he complimented with a Seat in the Chaiſe to carry her there, which ſhe accepted; and getting in, after ſome Civilities had paſſed, ſhe deſired that ſhe might drive, which being agreed to, ſhe, either by Deſign or Accident, ſtruck his Hat off with the Whip, which he getting out to take up, ſhe drove away with the Chaiſe to Old Windſor, and left him behind; and going to the Five Bells, the People not being up, ſhe endeavoured to ſwim over the Thames; but there being no Landing Place for the Horſe on the oppoſite Side, ſhe attempted to return, but they were drove down by the Stream to an Ait, where ſhe endeavoured to land. The People at the Bells being got up, ſent off a Punt to ſave her and the Horſe; the firſt of which they effected when ſhe was ſunk as high as her Neck, but the Gentleman's Horſe, which was a very good one, was drown'd. This Lady appears to be the Wife of one of the Domeſticks of a Perſon of great Diſtinction, addicted to Frolicks, whom the Huſband, it is ſaid, had rather have loſt than pay for the Horſe.

Honiton, in Devonſhire, Oct. 15. Laſt Friday we had the moſt violent Storm of Rain that was ever known in the Memory of Man; it ſwell'd the Rivers to ſuch a Degree, that they ſwept away ſeveral Hay-Ricks, and a great Number of Cattle, alſo ſeveral Bridges and Houſes; and ſome People were drown'd. A great many People that lived near the Bridge in this Town were obliged to get out at the Tops of their Houſes. The Damage done in this Town is computed at ſeveral hundred Pounds. And 'tis thought the Loſs of the Neighbourhood can't be leſs than two or three Thouſand Pounds.

Mr. GREEN, Potowmack, November 1, 1753.

" I take this Opportunity of informing you of a moſt melancholy Affair, which happen'd on the 16th of laſt Month:

One

Best possible image.

One Thomas Cooper, an Inhabitant on the South Branch of Potowmack, happen'd to be from home, and having left his Children to manage his Affairs during his Abſence, one of the Boys about Eleven Years old, went from the Houſe about a hundred Yards in order to drive ſome of the Cattle round the Corner of the Fence, where he was met by ſeven Indians (who were ſeen ſome Time before ſkulking about that Place), who carried him off the Spot, and none of the reſt of the Children could tell what became of him, only that they heard him Halloo twice: After his Father came home, he got ſeveral of the Inhabitants, to go along with him into the Woods, to try if they could find him, but without Succeſs, for they have heard no News of him, or of the Indians, ſince that Time. The Father of the Child came here, and has got a Certificate in order to carry it to the Governor of Virginia, together with a Piece of Birch Bark, which he found ſtuck up in the Notch of a Stick cloſe by the Path which the Indians had gone, which was mark'd by the Indians, and which being ſhewn to ſome Indian Traders, they all ſay that they are French Indians, being acquainted with their Marks. I have another Piece of News to acquaint you with; we lately received a Letter, together with a Belt of Wampum, from one of the Heads of the Indians called the Half King, directed to the Governors of Virginia and Pennſylvania, intreating to ſend up immediately and build two Forts on the River Ohio, as they are continually expecting a Viſit from the French. I have nothing more particular to add, but that I am,

Yours, &c. G. GARDINER."

December 6. Yeſterday, about Ten o' Clock in the Evening, died, at his Houſe in this City, in the 68th Year of his Age, after a long and lingering Illneſs, the Honourable DANIEL DULANY, Eſq; Commiſſary-General of this Province, one of his Lordſhip's Council of State, and Recorder of this City. During 50 Years Reſidence in Maryland, he always maintained an excellent Character, ſtrictly agreeable to the Rules of Honour, Juſtice and Integrity. He came into the Country very young, but by the Strength of his natural Parts (which were extraordinary) and his diligent Application, particularly to the Law, he became very eminent in that Profeſſion. He formerly ſerved this County and City many Years, as a Member of the Lower Houſe of Aſſembly; and poſſeſſed ſeveral of the greateſt Offices of Honour and Truſt in the Government, eſpecially that of Attorney-General, and Judge of the Admiralty; and in all his ſeveral Stations he acquitted himſelf with ſtrict Equity and unwearied Diligence. He was an humane, generous and charitable Gentleman, and a great Promoter of the Publick Good, by encouraging all Kinds of Induſtry, towards which he largely contributed, and was very inſtrumental in ſettling the back Parts of this Province. He was a tender Huſband, the beſt of Fathers, a good Provider and Lover of his Family, a ſteady Friend, and kind Neighbour, and truly deſerved the Love and Eſteem of all Mankind. The Loſs of ſuch a Gentleman, to his Family in particular, and the Country in general, is greatly to be regretted.

We hear from Pocomoke, on the Eaſtern Shore, that two or three Weeks ago, a horrid Murder was committed there, by two Negro Men, on the Body of one Jones their Overſeer, in Accomack County, in Virginia. Jones had ordered the Negroes early in the Morning, to go to their Work; and getting up ſoon after, and going with his Shoes ſlip ſhod into their Quarter, and finding the Negroes there, he ſtruck one of them for not minding his Orders; and ſoon after ſtooping down to buckle his Shoes, one of the Negroes ſtruck him with an Axe on the Back of his Head, and knock'd out his Brains; after which they carried his Body and burnt it in a Parcel of Bruſh. Some of his ſmall Bones were afterwards found where the Fire was made, but his Thighs, with the Fleſh much parched up, and other Parts, were found buried in different Places. The Negroes are in Accomack Goal, and have confeſſed the Fact.

On Wedneſday, laſt Week, John Barret was executed at Joppa, for the Murder of his Wife, ſome Time ago, and was afterwards hung in Chains on a Gibbet as high as Haman's Gallows, near Baltimore Town, where he committed the Fact. He acknowledged the Juſtice of his Sentence; and laid the Cauſe of it to his Wife's Incontinency.

One John Goldſmith, who was condemned with him for a Burglary, has obtain'd his Excellency's Pardon, on Condition that he leaves this Province, never to be ſeen in it again, after ten Days.

NEW-YORK, December 17.

Captain Hubbel, who was mentioned in our laſt to have run aſhore on the Eaſt Bank, we are ſince told has entirely loſt both Sloop and Cargo.

By Captain Pearman, from Bermudas, we have an Account, That on the 12th of laſt Month, Mr. M'Neal, of that Iſland, was way-laid and murder'd by a Guinea Negro of his own, named Quaſh, in Revenge for a Beating he had received of his Maſter a few Days before: The Fellow was ſoon diſcovered and ſecured: But inaſmuch as that Iſland is at preſent, and has been for ſome Time paſt in a State of Nature, where every Man doth that which ſeemeth Right in his own Eyes, occaſioned by ſome Differences between thoſe who ſhould exerciſe the Juriſdiction, and the Abſence of their Governor; they are at a Loſs how to proceed in puniſhing the Negroe: However we are told, that moſt of the People of the Iſland, are drawing up a Repreſentation, to intreat the chief Magiſtrates to aſſume their proper Functions, and once more ſee Law and Juſtice take Place, their Governor not being expected over till next Spring.

Captain King, in four Weeks from the Virgin Iſlands, ſail'd in Company with Captain Gardner, in a Schooner bound to Boſton. Captain King in coming in on Thurſday laſt, unhappily ran upon a Ledge of Rocks in our Bay, called Robin's Reef, where his Sloop lay all that and the next Day, in great Danger of being loſt; but by the favourable Weather, and ſome Crafts being ſent to aſſiſt her, ſhe got off about 11 o' Clock on Friday Night without receiving any conſiderable Damage.

PHILADELPHIA, December 27.

From the South-Carolina Gazette, of December 3, we have the following Paragraph.

"By the laſt Veſſels from Providence we have Advice, that the French not only continue to keep ſome arm'd Veſſels cruizing in the Windward Paſſage, about Haneaga, Maguana, the Caicos's, Crooked and Turk's Iſland, &c. but that they have alſo lately landed Cattle on moſt of them, till'd and planted ſome of the Soil, and ſet up large Croſſes on each, with Inſcriptions of the pretended Property. Some of the Engliſh Veſſels, that have been taken on the Coaſts of theſe Iſlands, and condemned at Cape Francois, have been releaſed by the French General on Hiſpaniola, who gave them certain Paſſes for 20 Days, with ſtrict Cautions againſt being found there again. 'Tis not unlikely that this Affair will become ſuch another Subject of Diſpute as the Neutral Iſlands, Tobago, &c. for we hear a Complaint has been made by the Britiſh Miniſtry upon this Occaſion to the French Court, and that it diſowns having given any Directions for taking Poſſeſſion of or ſettling any Iſlands in the Windward Paſſage, to which the Engliſh have any Claim."

The Captains Moore, Coatam, Steell, Pitcairn, Ruſſell, Muir, and Rowand, are all ſafe arriv'd at Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, from this Place.

On Sunday the 16th Inſtant, the Snow Strickland, Capt. Baker, bound in here from the Weſt-Indies, was loſt near Indian River; the People were all ſaved, but the Cargo entirely deſtroyed, and the Veſſel beat to Pieces.

The Ship Molly, Captain Alliſon, ſailed in Company with Captain White from Liſbon for this Place.

On Friday laſt died, of an Apoplectick Fit, Mr. NATHAN LEVY, an eminent Merchant of this City. The fair Character he maintain'd in all his Tranſactions, the chearful and friendly Diſpoſition that conſtantly appear'd in him, make his Death much lamented: And the prudent and affectionate Manner in which he conducted himſelf in his domeſtick Capacity, renders the Loſs irreparable to his Family.

Laſt Week was kill'd by Jacob Viney, of this City Butcher, the largeſt Ox that ever was raiſed in this Province, or perhaps in America. His four Quarters weighed 1446 Pounds; the Tallow upon his Entrails 251; his Hide was but light in Proportion to his other Parts, being only 120 Pounds. He was juſtly ſuppoſed to weigh, when alive, 2200 Pounds, being full 17 Hands high.

On Monday Night, and Tueſday Morning laſt, we had as violent a Storm of Wind here, with Rain, as has been known for ſome Years paſt. When it began, the Wind was at South-eaſt, but towards the Morning ſhifted to South-weſt, and blew a meer Hurricane for ſome Hours, when it veer'd to the North-weſt, and moderated. The Damage done by it to the outward bound Shipping (come to our Knowledge) is, The Pembroke, Cowan, for Swanzey, aſhore near Cheſter; the Friendſhip, Seix, for South-Carolina, and the Rebecca, Lowther, for Barbados, both aſhore at or below New-Caſtle. The Ships Tyger and Alexander, Captains Burrows and M'Fun, rode it out.

ON Monday and Tueſday next, and the Thurſday and Friday following, it is propoſed to exhibit, in one of the Chambers of the ACADEMY, a COURSE of EXPERIMENTS on that new Branch of Natural Philoſophy, called ELECTRICITY; to be accompanied with two methodical LECTURES on the Nature and Properties of that wonderful Element. And as ſome are apt to doubt the Lawfulneſs of ſuch Methods of Security, it will be farther ſhewn, that the endeavouring to guard againſt Lightning in the Manner propoſed, cannot poſſibly be chargeable with Preſumption, nor be inconſiſtent with any of the Principles either of natural or revealed Religion. The Lectures to begin preciſely at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon. Tickets to be had at Mr. KINNERSLEY's Houſe, in Arch-ſtreet. Price Half a Dollar for each Lecture.
